FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

POSTAGE ENVELOPES &C.,—PROHIBITING THE SALE OF PORTIONS OF A PACKET.

To—The Treasury Officers, Districts and Taluks, Circular No. 1598, dated 4th October 1884.

The Officer in charge of the Resident's Treasury, Bangalore, having brought to notice that portions of a packet of British postage stamp envelopes, &c., are frequently sold by Amildars contrary to rule, the Comptroller has the honor to draw the attention of Treasury Officers, District and Taluk, to Appendix E, Rule V of the Civil Account Code, Part I, which clearly lays down that such envelopes should be sold in packets containing 16 each, neither more nor less, and to request that the rule may be strictly enforced in future.

SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS ON ACCOUNT OF SECURITIES TO GOVERNMENT.

Circular No. 1599, dated 9th October 1884.

To obviate misapprehension the Comptroller has the honor to draw the attention of Treasury Officers to Circular No. 1006, dated 31st May 1873, which prescribes that when Savings Banks deposits are accepted as security to Government for any purpose, they must be accompanied by a letter of agreement executed by the depositor and addressed to the District Treasury Officer, to the effect that the deposit will not be payable to him without the express written sanction of the officer who accepted it.

The circular referred to permits depositors to draw the interest without the intervention of the officer, but the agreement provides that the depositor will not claim payment of interest if the officer should forbid it.

The Pass Books may be held by the depositors in order to carry out the intention of the circular, but it is necessary as a precautionary arrangement that the Treasury Officer should distinctly record on the fly leaf of the Pass Book as well as in the Savings Bank Ledger Account of the depositor kept in the Treasury, not only the name of the depositor but also the purpose of the deposit and the date, &c., of his agreement: thus—

Name of Depositor

(name of officer) on account of

dated

H. HUDSON,
Comptroller.
